

Plymouth

A forward-looking faith community for more than 250 years

1. Please indicate what expectations you had for this employee/staff member and indicate whether they were met successfully, adequately or inadequately.
2. This employee/staff member should be commended upon the following accomplishments.
3. This employee/staff member could improve in the following areas.
4. Given the responsibilities that this employee had over the last year, do you feel that any changes (additions, deletions, etc.) should be considered for her/his job description?
5. Additional comments.

Sign and Date