The Advent Wreath

The Advent wreath is richly symbolic. As a whole, it represents the universal Community of God. The wreath is in the shape of a circle in order to symbolize the eternal dimension of the love of God for all things at all times. A circle has no beginning and no end. There is no temporal or spatial beginning and end to the love of God. At all times, and for all things, God's love is ever-pervasive throughout all of creation.

The circle of the wreath also sets the boundary for all that is inside the circle. All that is necessary for the spiritual and moral life is contained within the circle. All other things are extraneous and may even be destructive. At the center of the circle is the white Christ candle — a symbol of purity, perfection, and wholeness. In it the many virtues become one virtue. Surrounding that candle are four other candles depicting the governing virtues necessary for living a life of purity and perfection in the Spirit of Christ: hope, faith, love, and joy. When all the candles are lit, they establish a glow of warmth and peace that lights the entire wreath. This symbolizes the harmony that exists between the virtues as well as their interdependence.

The flame of each candle represents the inspirational and motivational aspect of each governing virtue — individually, and for the whole. In having the passion for hope, faith, love, and joy we -through God's grace- provide spiritual and moral light for ourselves and also for others. Each candle is rooted in the midst of evergreen foliage. Evergreen foliage symbolizes the naturalness of living according to the virtues in one holy community of diverse individual parts. It also symbolizes the enduring and undying commitment necessary for living in this Community of God. Evergreen thus symbolizes life itself — the only life worth living: a life lived spiritually and morally. The Advent Wreath is thus an allegory of life within the Community of God.

Third Sunday of Advent

December 15, 2019

Sacred Fellowship 9:30 AM

We are delighted that you are here today! We hope you will find us an affirming, uplifting, and committed family of faith. Here we work to make everyone, without any exceptions, to feel accepted, inspired, and encouraged in their spiritual journey. In dialogue, we seek to understand. In encouragement, we seek to heal. In all things we yearn to live by love, for peace, with joy. This is a place where your intellect will be challenged, your heart will be nurtured, and your spirit refreshed. Varying beliefs are expressed openly and freely, and your doubts will not be suppressed. We trust that we are all, every person and part of creation, continuing to be blessed by God's grace; and that in community we can help each other to see this grace alive in our lives and relationships. We hope to share our gifts with you, even as we pray that you will want to share your gifts with us. Whoever you are and wherever you may be in your life's journey, we invite you to be a part of our lives and our spiritual home. Welcome!

Prelude

Welcoming the Light of Love in Our Midst Acolyte lights altar candle.
We prepare ourselves for communing with the sacred as love's light is brought into our awareness. The light of love burns within and among each of us, and we carry that light into our sanctuary; visually reminding us of the image of the divine that lives in our hearts, minds, and souls – and that we nourish through our faith-filled fellowship.

God of laughter and joy:

We give you thanks for the celebrations of life.

In this season of Advent, we remember not only the hardships and struggles of life, but also the hope, faith, and joy that abound this time of year.

Be with those who hearts are unsettled and whose minds are troubled.

For those who are feeling loss at this time, we ask you grant us wisdom on how we can remind them of joys past and encouragement to receive joys yet to come.

Help us to care for one another, to nurture each other's dreams, and to celebrate that which cheers our spirits.

As we sow acts of kindness and compassion, may they spring up in our lives to bring us and others joy for the year to come.

As we anticipate Christ coming ever more fully into our lives, may we too be ones who bring good news to those in need – not only by our words, but by our actions.

May we become the "oaks of righteousness" and those who build up, raise up, and repair the world around us.

Clothe us with the "garments of salvation," and cover us with the "robe of righteousness" that we may herald in the spirit of Christmas to all we meet in this glorious season. Blessings be.

Unison

Please feel free to do the version you know, or the one below.

“Our heavenly Creator, sacred be your name: your kin-dom* come, your will be done, on earth as if in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For yours is the kin-dom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen”

*“Kin-dom” is an inclusive, non-authoritarian, and egalitarian term that reminds us that we are all “kin” as the children of God.

Tune: Old Hundredth; p. 7

The advent of the Christ draws near.

With hope and faith we conquer fear.

Let love and peace in us be found.

Let joy within our hearts abound.

Unison Prayer of Dedication

Faith Formation

O God, whose coming was tender and mild, but whose presence is empowering and passionate: We are thankful for the hope you inspire in our world where poverty is painful and loving-kindness is lacking. Jolt us with justice that the world’s prayers for peace may be answered. Jostle us with generosity that we may know the joy of giving. In this season of Advent, enter into our hearts that hope may arise within us to expect that which has been promised: that nourishment will be provided for the hungry...that comfort will call upon the suffering...that freedom will ensue for the imprisoned...that justice will be imparted to the persecuted...that compassion will nurture the oppressed...that peace will pacify the violent...and that love will live in the midst of all peoples and creatures that you have declared good. May this gift of hope that you give to us be passed on to others by how we give of ourselves through our time, talents, tithes, and offerings. Amen

Encouragement for the Journey

Faith Formation

This is the season of Advent, the season of something divine coming into the world.

Prepare yourselves for the divine to come into your life.

Hope for it; but more than that, expect it.

Look for ways in which the divine can find its way into you.

Then look for ways in which you can share the divine with others.

Love like you want to be loved. Forgive like you want to be forgiven.

Be the peace to others that you want for yourself.

Give such that others will call you generous.

Live such that others see the beauty of your Spirit.

The Light of Love Goes into the World

Love's light is not extinguished from our worship, but is transferred from the flame of the candles to the passion in our hearts that we may go forth to let the light of love shine through us as we go to serve in the world.

WE GO FORTH AS PEACEMAKERS TO CREATE JUSTICE FOR ALL

Our worship is fulfilled, and our purpose is confirmed, through our service as God's stewards to the world and all creation.

Use the blessings God has given you as you share
the joy in your heart, the wisdom in your mind, the love in your spirit, and the peace in your soul.

Thank you for sharing sacred fellowship with us.

Plymouth Congregational UCC is an open and affirming church, embracing diversity in our congregation and community, and affirming the dignity and worth of every person. We are an inclusive community of faith that celebrates God's presence through shared stories and experiences of sacred meaning on Sundays, and through the nurturing of divine values and virtues manifested in active practices in our daily lives. We welcome all persons into the full life and ministry of the church, regardless of race, ethnic background, gender/sexual identity, sexual orientation, physical or cognitive capabilities, nationality/citizenship, or circumstance of life. We are also a Just Peace church, emphasizing peace and nonviolence in all our relationships, personally and collectively, because we see the sacred worth of every person throughout this good earth. We are a Progressive Christian family of faith. We invite you to hear our experiences of the divine even as we are curious in learning about your own spiritual journey. We hope our values may intersect as together we strive to make our corner of the world a better place. Get to know us! We'd like to get to know you!

December 24th – Christmas Eve Candlelight Service

Announcements

Coffee Hour - Today, everyone is invited to Coffee Hour in Fellowship Hall following the Service for a beverage, snack and conversation.

There are many opportunities to help in the kitchen by setting up prior to the service, cleaning up afterwards or bringing in snacks or other foods to share. You may sign-up on the bulletin board near the pass-through window to help or use one of the dated tags on the Will-U poster at the entrance to Fellowship Hall if you are bringing a snack. Please contact Chris Pollock at 603-674-8590 or e-mail at rpollcock@metrocast.net to sign up or if you have any questions. Thank you from the Hospitality Committee!

Volunteers Needed – PCUCC is in need of 15 readers for our Christmas Eve Candle Light Service on December 24th at 7:00 PM. Please contact Eileen or Debbie if you are able to help. Thank you!

Feeding Our Children Together – We are in need of plastic bags for the children’s weekend food supply. Thank you for your donations!!

Hannaford is donating $1.00 to FOCT for every bag that they sell. The donation will help support feeding the hungry. So if you need some bags, please look for the designated bags at Hannaford and support our local program to feed hungry children in Plymouth!

Sunday Worship Service Flowers - We need someone willing to coordinate flowers for the communion table from December thru May. (Sylvia Shaw coordinates June thru November.) Folks sign up to bring flowers most Sundays, but we need someone willing to coordinate this. If you would like to do this, please contact Eileen Torrey at eileen@weisshouse.net.
